- SATURDAY NIGHT: Dance ✨ Bliss ✨ Empower-MEANT

A JWoW. / Z Griss Film AND Temple of the Dancing Roots Dance Jam

This very special evening starts with an intimate video viewing and Q&A with JWoW. exploring the healing powers of dance and neurodiversity. Because JWoW. is a 24-person multiple, this film dives quickly and deeply into a majickal look of erotic healing across generations as well as specific intimate growth that's only possible when 2 beings inhabit the same body. This short documentary was directed and created by Z Griss and includes Lorina Manzanita and Bernadette Pleasant.

Afterwards, there's a special Planet JWOW Temple of the Dancing Roots empower-meant party. We'll learn, from JWOW, how to calibrate and focus the energies of our movements to bring more joy, power, and safety into all of our realms of our own lives AND to our larger planetary family.

Plus JWoW. just might drum for our dancing, as well... You'll have to come to find out! ;-D
